INTER-AMERICAN DIALOGUE

JOINING THE CORPORATE CIRCLE
DID YOU KNOW...

- The Dialogue is ranked among the top 2 percent of US think tanks in a recent University of Pennsylvania survey.
- Sixteen of the Dialogue’s 100 members have served as presidents of their countries and more than three dozen have served at the cabinet level.
- The majority of our Board of Directors is from Latin American and Caribbean nations.
- A not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization, the Dialogue is funded by contributions from individuals, corporations, governments and foundations.
- The Dialogue holds a top ranking of 4 by Charity Navigator for financial transparency.
- Our activities are directed to generating new policy ideas and practical proposals for action, and getting these ideas and proposals to government and private decision makers.
- The Dialogue offers diverse Latin American and Caribbean voices a place in US policy debates.
WE BELIEVE PRIVATE SECTOR LEADERS HAVE A ROLE TO PLAY IN IMPROVING U.S.-LATIN AMERICAN TIES, AND WE WELCOME THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY’S INVOLVEMENT IN THE INTER-AMERICAN DIALOGUE’S ACTIVITIES THROUGH THE CORPORATE CIRCLE. THE CORPORATE CIRCLE INFORMS AND SHAPES THE INTER-AMERICAN DIALOGUE’S WORK IN SIGNIFICANT WAYS. BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL EXECUTIVES ARE AMONG THE FEATURED SPEAKERS AT OUR PUBLIC AND PRIVATE EVENTS, THEY REGULARLY COMMENT IN OUR HIGHLY-REGARDED LATIN AMERICA ADVISOR NEWSLETTERS, THEY PROVIDE VALUABLE INPUT ON EXISTING DIALOGUE ACTIVITIES AND OFFER FRESH IDEAS FOR NEW PROGRAMS. IMPORTANTLY, THEIR COMPANIES’ FINANCIAL SUPPORT HELPS SUSTAIN THE QUALITY OF OUR WORK AND MAKES NEW PROJECTS POSSIBLE.

In turn, the Dialogue works hard to make membership in the Circle of high value and benefit through:

- Frequent opportunities to engage top policy and business leaders across the Americas. Circle members receive invitations to some 70 private meetings and public forums organized by the Dialogue each year. They have the option to participate in live webcasts of our events.

- Delivery of the Dialogue’s Latin America Advisor newsletters each business morning. The Advisor covers the latest policy and business news and calls on the most informed experts to analyze timely and pressing issues. Members can also choose to receive our sector-specific newsletters on energy and financial sector trends, and can access a searchable archive with more than 2,000 editions of the Advisor.

- Balanced, authoritative, and timely analysis about critical economic and political developments in Latin America and the Caribbean. Members have opportunities for personal briefings with senior Dialogue staff—an exceptionally influential and diverse group who have made our organization rank among the top 25 most-cited think tanks in the US media. Circle members also receive the Dialogue’s publications and articles, which provide timely analysis on key issues in the hemisphere.

ABOUT THE INTER-AMERICAN DIALOGUE

For more than 30 years, the Dialogue has been the leading US center for policy analysis, exchange, and action on issues in Western Hemisphere affairs. Our mission is to bring together public and private visionaries and change agents from across the Americas to address hemispheric problems and opportunities.

Together, these leaders seek to build cooperation among Western Hemisphere nations and advance a regional agenda of democratic governance, social equity, and economic development.

The Dialogue’s work agenda is currently focused on the region’s economic and political responses to global problems and trends, opportunities for energy development and cooperation, the expanding role of China, approaches to increase productivity through more effective social policies, and efforts to strengthen the rule of law and reduce criminal violence.

About the Corporate Circle

- More than 100 of the world’s largest and fastest-growing companies belong to the Corporate Circle.

- The Dialogue provides Circle members with a nonpartisan forum in which to exchange views with Latin America’s leaders, across the political spectrum.

- Circle members take advantage of private briefings with Dialogue members and staff to analyze trends and developments in the region.

- Each year, the Latin America Advisor publishes nearly 1,000 expert commentaries—from business leaders, economists, politicians, and diplomats—on queries submitted by subscribers for its highly regarded Q&A feature.
